UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

GERREL LOONEY,
Plaintiff,
v.
L. GUTIERREZ, et al.,
Defendants.

Case No. 17-cv-01164-KAW (PR)

ORDER OF SERVICE

Plaintiff Gerrel Looney, a state prisoner at the California Men's Colony, has filed a pro se civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, alleging the violation of his constitutional rights by Correctional Officers L. Gutierrez, M. Pastel and J. Taylor, employees at Pelican Bay State Prison, where Plaintiff was previously confined. Plaintiff has consented to the jurisdiction of the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge over this action. Plaintiff's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis is granted in a separate order. The Court now reviews Plaintiff's complaint.

DISCUSSION

I. Preliminary Review of Complaint

A federal court must conduct a preliminary screening in any case in which a prisoner seeks redress from a governmental entity or officer or employee of a governmental entity. 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a). In its review, the court must identify any cognizable claims and dismiss any claims that are frivolous, malicious, fail to state a claim upon which relief may be granted or seek monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. Id. § 1915A(b)(1), (2). Pro se pleadings must be liberally construed. Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Dep't, 901 F.2d 696, 699 (9th Cir. 1988).

1       Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(a)(2) requires only “a short and plain statement of the 2 claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief.” “Specific facts are not necessary; the 3 statement need only “give the defendant fair notice of what the . . . claim is and the grounds upon 4 which it rests.”” Erickson v. Pardus, 551 U.S. 89, 93 (2007).

To state a claim under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, a plaintiff must allege two essential elements:
(1) that a right secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States was violated, and (2) that the alleged violation was committed by a person acting under the color of state law. West v.
Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 48 (1988).

Liability may be imposed on an individual defendant under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 if the plaintiff can show that the defendant's actions both actually and proximately caused the deprivation of a federally protected right. Lemire v. Cal. Dept. Corrections & Rehabilitation, 756 F.3d 1062, 1074 (9th Cir. 2013); Leer v. Murphy, 844 F.2d 628, 634 (9th Cir. 1988). A person deprives another of a constitutional right within the meaning of section 1983 if he does an affirmative act, participates in another's affirmative act or omits to perform an act which he is legally required to do, that causes the deprivation of which the plaintiff complains. Leer, 844 F.2d at 633.

17 II. Plaintiff's Claim

The complaint alleges the following: On May 27, 2016, Plaintiff was brutally beaten by Defendants Gutierrez and Taylor while he was handcuffed. His injuries include a chipped tooth, a cut on his lip requiring stitches, a slash on his right arm and severe pain in his head and back. His prescription eyeglasses were broken. Defendant Pastel was present but did not stop Gutierrez and Taylor from beating Plaintiff.

23       Liberally construed, the allegations appear to give rise to a cognizable Eighth Amendment 24 claim for excessive force against the three Defendants.

CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, the Court orders as follows:

27           1. The Clerk of the Court shall mail a Notice of Lawsuit and Request for Waiver of 28 Service of Summons, two copies of the Waiver of Service of Summons, a copy of the complaint

1       (docket no. 1), and all attachments thereto, a copy of this Order and a copy of the form “Consent
2       or Declination to Magistrate Judge Jurisdiction” to Pelican Bay State Prison Correctional Officers
3       L. Gutierrez, Badge #56660, M. Pastel, Badge #51913 and J. Taylor, Badge #64724. This form
4       can also be found at www.cand.uscourts.gov/civilforms. The Clerk shall also mail a copy of the 5       complaint and a copy of this Order to the State Attorney General’s Office in San Francisco, and a 6       copy of this Order to Plaintiff.

7           2. Defendants are cautioned that Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure require 8       them to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the summons and complaint. Pursuant 9       to Rule 4, if Defendants, after being notified of this action and asked by the Court, on behalf of 10      Plaintiff, to waive service of the summons, fail to do so, they will be required to bear the cost of 11      such service unless good cause be shown for their failure to sign and return the waiver forms. If 12      service is waived, this action will proceed as if Defendants had been served on the date that the 13      waiver is filed, except that pursuant to Rule 12(a)(1)(B), Defendants will not be required to serve 14      and file an answer before sixty days from the date on which the request for waiver was sent. (This 15      allows a longer time to respond than would be required if formal service of summons is 16      necessary.)

17           Defendants are advised to read the statement set forth at the foot of the waiver form that 18      more completely describes the duties of the parties with regard to waiver of service of the 19      summons. If service is waived after the date provided in the Notice but before Defendants have 20      been personally served, the answer shall be due sixty days from the date on which the request for 21      waiver was sent or twenty days from the date the waiver form is filed, whichever is later.

22           3. Defendants shall file their Consent or Declination to Magistrate Judge Jurisdiction on or 23      before the date their answer is due.

24           4. The following briefing schedule shall govern dispositive motions in this action:

25           a. No later than thirty days from the date his answer is due, Defendants shall file a 26      motion for summary judgment or other dispositive motion. If Defendants file a motion for 27      summary judgment, it shall be supported by adequate factual documentation and shall conform in 28      all respects to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56. If Defendants are of the opinion that this case

1 cannot be resolved by summary judgment, they shall so inform the Court prior to the date the 2 summary judgment motion is due. All papers filed with the Court shall be promptly served on 3 Plaintiff.

4 At the time of filing the motion for summary judgment or other dispositive motion, 5 Defendants shall comply with the Ninth Circuit's decision in Woods v. Carey, 684 F.3d 934 (9th
6 Cir. 2012), and provide Plaintiff with notice of what is required of him to oppose a summary
7 judgment motion. If the motion is based on non-exhaustion of administrative remedies, 8 Defendants must comply with the notice and procedural requirements in Albino v. Baca, 747 F.3d 9 1162 (9th Cir. 2014). See Stratton v. Buck, 697 F.3d 1004, 1008 (9th Cir. 2012).

10 b. Plaintiff's opposition to the motion for summary judgment or other dispositive 11 motion shall be filed with the Court and served on Defendants no later than twenty-eight days after 12 the date on which Defendants' motion is filed. The Ninth Circuit has held that the following notice 13 should be given to pro se plaintiffs facing a summary judgment motion:

14 The defendants have made a motion for summary judgment by which they seek to have 15 your case dismissed. A motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules 16 of Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case.

17 Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for summary judgment.
18 Generally, summary judgment must be granted when there is no genuine issue of material 19 fact -- that is, if there is no real dispute about any fact that would affect the result of your 20 case, the party who asked for summary judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter of law, 21 which will end your case. When a party you are suing makes a motion for summary 22 judgment that is properly supported by declarations (or other sworn testimony), you cannot 23 simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out specific facts in declarations, depositions, answers to interrogatories, or authenticated documents, as provided in Rule 56(e), that contradict the facts shown in the defendant's declarations and documents and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial. If you do not submit your own evidence in opposition, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered against you. If summary judgment is granted [in favor of the defendants], your case will be dismissed and there will be no trial.

24 Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 962-63 (9th Cir. 1998) (en banc).

25 Before filing his opposition, Plaintiff is advised to read the notice that will be provided to 26 him by Defendants when the motion is filed, and Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 27 and Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317 (1986) (party opposing summary judgment must come 28 forward with evidence showing triable issues of material fact on every essential element of his

1 claim). Plaintiff is cautioned that because he bears the burden of proving his allegations in this 2 case, he must be prepared to produce evidence in support of those allegations when he files his 3 opposition to Defendants' summary judgment motion. Such evidence may include sworn 4 declarations from himself and other witnesses to the incident, and copies of documents
5 authenticated by sworn declaration. Plaintiff will not be able to avoid summary judgment simply 6 by repeating the allegations of his complaint.

7 The same evidentiary requirement applies if the defendants file a motion for summary 8 judgment for failure to exhaust administrative remedies. To oppose this motion, Plaintiff must 9 present any evidence he may have which tends to show that he did exhaust administrative 10 remedies or was excused from doing so. Again, the evidence may be in the form of declarations, 11 that is statements of fact from himself or other witnesses signed under penalty of perjury, copies of 12 documents accompanied by a declaration showing where they came from and why they are 13 authentic, or discovery documents such as answers to interrogatories or depositions. In 14 considering a summary judgment motion for failure to exhaust administrative remedies, the Court 15 can decide disputed issues of fact with regard to this portion of the case. See generally Albino, 16 747 F.3d at 1172-73; Stratton, 697 F.3d at 1008.

17 c. Defendants shall file a reply brief no later than fourteen days after the date 18 Plaintiff's opposition is filed.

19 d. The motion shall be deemed submitted as of the date the reply brief is due. No 20 hearing will be held on the motion unless the Court so orders at a later date.

21 5. Discovery may be taken in this action in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil 22 Procedure. No further court order pursuant to Rule 30(a)(2) or Local Rule 16 is required before 23 the parties may conduct discovery.

24 6. It is Plaintiff's responsibility to prosecute this case. Plaintiff must keep the Court 25 informed of any change of address by filing a separate paper with the clerk headed "Notice of 26 Change of Address," and must comply with the Court's orders in a timely fashion. Failure to do so 27 may result in the dismissal of this action for failure to prosecute pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil 28 Procedure 41(b).

1           7. Extensions of time are not favored, though reasonable extensions will be granted. Any 2 motion for an extension of time must be filed no later than three days prior to the deadline sought 3 to be extended.
